HYMNAL NOTED.

HYMN 1

¶ lux beata Trinitas.

Saturday Evening Hymn.

From the SALISBURY HYMNAL.

ROM. xi. 33.—“O the depths of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!”

O TRIN-I-TY of bless-ed light, O U - ni - ty of prince-ly might,
The fie-ry sun now goes his way : Shed Thou within our hearts Thy ray.
2. To Thee our morning song of praise, To Thee our ev'ning pray'r we raise :
Thy glo-ry suppliant we a - dore, For ev - er and for ev-er-more. Amen.

2

Somno refectis artibus.

Sunday Morning Hymn from the first Sunday
after EPIPHANY till LENT, and from the first
Sunday after TRINITY till ADVENT.

From the SALISBURY HYMNAL.

ISAIAH ii. 3.—“Let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob : and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths : for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.”

O UR limbs refresh'd with slumber now, And sloth cast off, in pray'r we bow :
And while we sing Thy praises dear, O Father be Thou present here!
2. To Thee our earliest morning song, To Thee our hearts' full pow'rs belong :
And Thou, O Ho - ly One, prevent Each following action and intent.

3. As shades at morning flee away, And night before the Star of day,
 So each trans-gres-sion of the night Be purg'd by Thee, celestial Light !

4. Cut off, we pray Thee, each offence, And ev'ry lust of thought and sense ;
 That by their lips who Thee adore Thou may'st be prais'd for evermore.

5. O Father, that we ask be done, Through Jesus Christ, Thine Only Son ;
 Who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and Thee, Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

3

Primo dierum omnium.

Sunday Morning Hymn from the first Sunday
 after EPIPHANY till LENT, and from the first
 Sunday after TRINITY till ADVENT.

From the SALISBURY HYMNAL.

REV. vii. 12.—“ Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.”

0
 N this the day that saw the earth From utter darkness first have birth ;
 The day its Ma-ker rose again, And vanquish'd death, and burst our chain :

2. Away with sleep and slothful ease ! We raise our hearts and bend our knees,
 And early seek the Lord of all, According to the Prophet's call.

3. That He may grant us that we crave; May stretch His strong right arm to save:
And purging out each sinful stain, Restore us to our Home again.

4. Assembled here this holy day, This holiest hour we raise the lay:
And oh that He to whom we sing May now reward our offering!

5. O Father of unclouded light! We pray Thee, kneeling in Thy sight,
From all de-file-ment to be freed, And ev'ry sinful act and deed:

6. That this our body's mortal frame May know no sin, and fear no shame,
Where-by the fires of hell may rise To torture us in fiercer wise.

7. We therefore, Saviour, cry to Thee To wash out our in - i - qui - ty:
And give us, of Thy boundless grace, The blessings of the Heav'nly Place.

8. That we, thence exil'd by our sin, Hereafter may be welcom'd in:
That blessed time a - waiting now, With hymns of glory here we bow.

9. O Father, that we ask be done, Through Jesus Christ, Thine Only Son;
Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee, Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

1 TIM., i, 17.—“Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.”

Now that the day-light fills the sky, We lift our hearts to God on high,
 That He, in all we do, or say, Would keep us free from harm to-day :
 2. Would guard our hearts and tongues from strife : From anger's din would hide our life : From all ill sights would turn our eyes :
 Would close our ears from vanities :
 3. Would keep our inmost conscience pure ; Our souls from folly would secure :
 Would bid us check the pride of sense With due and holy abstinence.
 4. So we, when this new day is gone, And night in turn is drawing on, With conscience by the world unstained, Shall praise His Name for vict'ry gained.
 5. All laud to God the Father be; All praise, Eternal Son, to Thee ;
 All praise for ever, as is meet, To God the Holy Paraclete. Amen.

1 TIM., i, 17.—“Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.”

ZECH. viii, 19.—“Thus saith the Lord of Hosts; * * * love the truth, and peace.”

N

T o earth descending, Word sublime, Begotten ere the days of time,
 Who cam'st a Child, the world to aid, As years their downward course display'd:

2. Each breast be lighten'd from above, Each heart be kindled with Thy love;

3. That so, when Thou, our Judge, art nigh, All secret deeds of men to try,
 Shall mete to sin pangs rightly won, To just men joy for deeds well done,

4. Thy servants may not be enchain'd By punishment their guilt has gain'd:

2. Glitter now the Crown a-boye thee, Figur'd in thy sa-cred name:

Oh! that we, who truly love thee, May have portion in the same;

In the dreadful Day of Judgment, Fearing nei-ther sin nor shame.

3. Laud to God, and might, and honour, Who with flow'rs of rosy dye

Crown'd thy forehead, and hath plac'd thee In the starry throne on high.

He di-rect us, He protect us, From death's sting e - ternally. A - men.

Rev. xiv. 1.—“I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the Mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.”

A L L hail! ye infant Martyr flow'rs, Cut off in life's first dawning hours,
 As rose-buds snapt in tempest strife, When Herod sought your Saviour's life.

2. You, tender flock of lambs we sing, First victims slain for Christ your King:
 Beneath the Altar's Heav'nly ray, With Martyr Palms and Crowns ye play!

3. For their redemption glo - ry be, O Jesu, Virgin-born, to Thee!
 With Father, and with Ho - ly Ghost, For ever, from the Martyr Host! Amen.

and the following week.

From the SALISBURY HYMNAL

ISAIAH ix. 1.—"Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee."

W HY, impious He-rod, vainly fear, That Christ the Saviour cometh here?

He takes not earthly realms a-way, Who gives the crown that lasts for aye.

2. To greet His birth the wise men went, Led by the star be-fore them sent:

Call'd on by light, towards Light they press'd, And by their gifts their God confess'd. 3. In ho-ly Jor-dan's purest wave, The heav'nly

Lamb vouchsaf'd to lave: That He, to Whom was sin unknown,

Might cleanse His peo - ple from their own.

4. New mi - ra - cle of Pow'r Divine! The water reddens in - to wine:

He spake the word, and pour'd the wave In other streams than nature gave.

5. All glo - ry, Lord, to Thee we pay For Thine E-piph - a - ny to-day:

All glory as is ev - er meet, To Father and to Pa - ra-clete. A - men

PHIL. ii 6.—“He humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name: that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow.”

J E - su! the very thought is sweet! In that dear Name all heart-joys meet:
 But sweeter than the honey far The glimp-s-es of His presence are.

2. No word is sung more sweet than this; No name is heard more full of bliss:
 No thought brings sweeter comfort nigh, Than Jesus, Son, of God Most High.

3. Jesu! the hope of souls for-lorn, How geod to them for sin that mourn!
 To them that seek Thee, oh how kind! But what art Thou to them that find?

4. No tongue of mor-tal can ex - press, No letters write its bless-ed-ness:
 A-lone who hath thee in his heart Knows, love of Je-sus! what thou art.

5. O Je-su, King of wondrous might! O vic-tor, glorious from the fight!
 Sweetness that may not be ex - press'd, And al - to - ge - ther love-li-est!

6. Remain with us, O Lord, to - day: In ev-ry heart Thy grace dis-play:
 That, now the shades of night are fled, On Thee our spi-rits may be fed.

Evening Hymn in LEST.

From the SALISBURY HYMNAL.

EPH. v. 1.—“Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children ; And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour.”

Lo ! now is our accepted day, The med'cine purging sin away ;

Where'er our lives have wrought offence, By thought and word, by deed and sense !

2. For God, the merciful and true, Hath spar'd His people hitherto ;

Nor us and ours, with searching eyes, Destroy'd for our i - ni - qui-ties.

3. Him therefore now, with earnest care, And contrite fast, and tear and pray'r,

And works of mercy and of love, We pray for pardon from above :

4. That from pollution making whole, With virtues He may deck each soul,

And join us, in the Heav'nly place, To Angel cohorts by His grace.

5. O Father, that we ask be done, Through Jesus Christ, Thine Only Son ;

Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee, Shall live and reign e - ternally. Amen.

MORNING HYMN IN LENT.

From the SALISBURY HYMNAL.

II. Cor. vi. 1.—“We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain. For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee.”

O MAKER of the World, give ear! Accept the pray'r, and own the tear, Toward Thy seat of mer-cy sent In this most ho-ly fast of Lent.

2. Each heart is man - i - fest to Thee: Thou knowest our in-fir-mi - ty :

Forgive Thou then each soul that fain Would seek to Thee, and turn again.

3. Our sins are man-i-fold and sore; But par-don them that sin deplore:

And for Thy Name's sake, make each soul That feels and owns its languor whole.

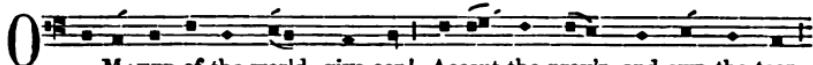

4. So mor - ti - fy we ev' - ry sense, By grace of outward ab - sti - nence,

That from each stain and spot of sin The soul may keep her fast with-in.

5. Grant, O Thou Bless-ed Trin - i - ty, Grant, O Es-sen - tial U-ni-ty,

That this our fast of for-ty days, May work our profit, and Thy praise. Amen.

5. Grant, O Thou Blessed Trin-i-ty, Grant, O Es-sen-tial U-ni-ty,

That this our fast of forty days, May work our profit, and Thy Praise. Amen

EPH. v. 5.—"For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God."

J e-s u, the Law and Pattern, whence Our forty days of ab-sti-nence,
 Who souls to save, that else had died, This sacred fast hast ra-ti-fied:

2. That so to Paradise once more, Might abstinence preserv'd restore
 Them that had lost its fields of light, Through crafty wiles of ap-pe-tite:

3. Be pre-sent now, be present here, And mark Thy Church's fall-ing tear,
 And own the grief that fills her eyes In mourning her i-ni-quities.

4. Oh, by Thy Grace be pardon won, For sins that former years have done:
 And let Thy mercy guard us still From crimes that threaten future ill.

5. That by the Fast we offer here, Our annual sa-cri-fice sincere,
 To Paschal gladness at the end, Set free from guilt, our souls may tend,

6. O Fa-ther, that we ask be done, Through Jesus Christ, Thine Only Son,
 Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee, Shall live and reign eternally. Amen.

HEB. ix. 11.—“Christ being come an high-priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by His own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.”

THE Royal Banners forward go: The Cross shines forth in mystic glow;

Where He in flesh, our flesh Who made, Our sen-tence bore, our ransom paid.

2. Where deep for us the spear was dy'd, Life's torrent rushing from His side,
To wash us in that precious flood Where mingled Water flow'd, and Blood.

3.* Fulfill'd is all that Da-vid told In true Prophetic song of old;
Amidst the nations God, saith he, Hath reign'd and triumph'd from the Tree.

4. O Tree of beauty, Tree of light! O Tree with ro-yal pur-ple dight!
Elect on whose triumphal breast Those ho-ly limbs should find their rest:

5. On whose dear arms, so widely flung, The weight of this world's ransom hung;
The price of human kind to pay, And spoil the Spoiler of his prey.

6. To Thee, E-ter-nal Three in One, Let homage meet by all be done:
Whom by the Cross thou dost restore, Pre-serve and govern e-vermore! Amen.

4. Right gloriously He triumphs now, Worthy to Whom should all things bow:

And joining Heav'n and earth again Links in one common - weal the twain.

ACTS ii, 24.—“Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death; because it was not possible he should be holden of it.”

JESU, Who brought'st Redemption nigh, Word of the Father, God most High
 O Light of Light, to man unknown, And watchful Guardian of Thine Own :
 2. Thy Hand Creation made and guides; Thy Wisdom time from time divides;
 By this world's cares and toils op-prest, O give our weary bodies rest.
 3. That while in frames of sin and pain, A little longer we remain,
 Our flesh may here in such wise sleep, That watch with Christ our souls may keep.
 4. O free us, while we dwell below, From insults of our ghostly foe,
 That he may ne'er victorious be O'er them that are redeem'd by Thee.
 5. We pray Thee, King with Glory deck'd, In this our Paschal joy, protect
 From all that Death would fain ef-fect, Thy ransom'd flock, Thine Own elect.
 6. To Thee Who, dead, again dost live, All glory, Lord, Thy people give;

J E - su, Redemption all divine, Whom here we love, for Whom we pine,
God, working out Cre-a-tion's plan, And, in the lat-ter time, made Man;

8. LUKE xxiv. 51.—“And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.”

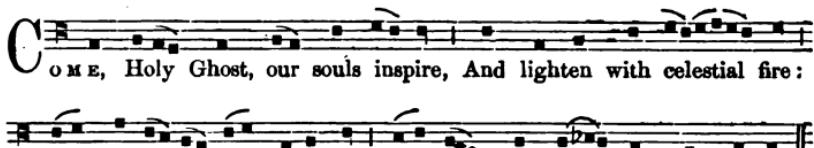

Blest joys for mighty wonders wrought The year's revolving orb has brought,
 What time the Ho-ly Ghost in flame Upon the Lord's Dis - ci - ples came.
 2. The quiv'ring fire their heads bedew'd, In cloven tongues' si-mil - i - tude,
 That e-lo-quent their words might be, And fervid all their cha - ri - ty.
 3. In varying tongues the Lord they prais'd, The gath'ring peoples stood amaz'd;
 And whom the Comfort-er Divine Inspir'd, they mock'd as full of wine.

 The number told, which once set f^{or}e The captive at the Ju - bi - lee.

Acts ii, 1.—“And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the house where they were sitting.”

COME, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, And lighten with celestial fire:

Thou the anointing Spirit art, Who dost Thy sev'n-fold gifts impart.

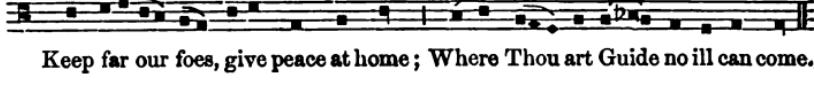

2. Thy blessed Unction from a-bove, Is comfort, life, and fire of love:

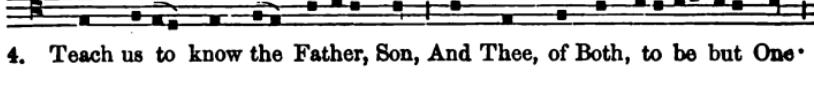

En-a-ble with perpetual light The dul-ness of our blinded sight.

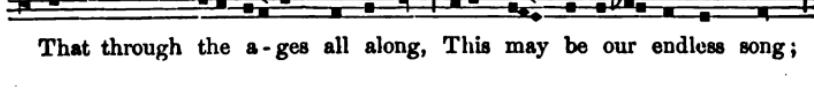

3 Anoint and cheer our soiled face With the abundance of Thy grace:

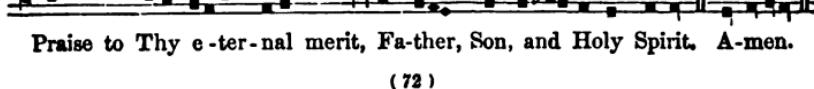

Keep far our foes, give peace at home; Where Thou art Guide no ill can come.

4. Teach us to know the Father, Son, And Thee, of Both, to be but One.

That through the a-ges all along, This may be our endless song;

Praise to Thy e-ter-nal merit, Fa-ther, Son, and Holy Spirit. A-men.

Of things a-bove, and things be-low, Beginning that no end shall know.

2. Thee all the ar-mies of the sky A - dore, and laud, and mag-ni-fy:

And Nature, in her tri-ple flame, For ev-er sanc-ti - fies Thy Name.

3. And we, too, thanks and homage pay, Thine own a-dor-ing flock to - day:

O join to that ce-les-tial song The praises of our sup-pliant throng!

4. Light, sole and one, we Thee confess, With triple praise we right-ly bless;

Al-pha and O - me-ga we own, With ev'ry spirit round Thy Throne.

5. To Thee, O Un-be-got-ten One, And Thee, O Sole be-got-ten Son:

The soldiers of the heav'nly hall, The lights that rose on earth for all.

3. 'Twas thus the yearning faith of Saints, Th' unconquer'd hope that never faints,

The love of Christ that knows not shame, The Prince of this world o - vercame.

4. In these the Father's glo - ry shone, In these the will of God the Son:

In these exults the Holy Ghost, Through these rejoice the Heav'n-ly host.

Henceafter, of Thine endless grace, Thy servants also may have place. Amen.

S. JAMES i. 12.—“ Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.”

THE triumphs of the Saints, Bless-ed for ev-er-more, Their love that nev-er faints, The toils they brave-ly bore,— For these the Church to-day, Pours forth her joy-ous lay, These vic-tors win the no-blest bay.

2. They, whom this world of ill, While it yet held, abhorr'd: Its with-ring flow'rs that still They spurn'd with one accord: They knew them shortliv'd all, And follow'd at Thy call, King Je-su, to Thy Heav'n - ly Hall.

3. For Thee all pangs they bare, Fu-ry and mor-tal hate, The cru-el scourge to tear, The hook to la-ce-rate; But vain their foes intent:

For, ev'-ry tor-ment spent, Their val-i-ant spi-rits stood un-bent.

4. Like sheep their blood they pour'd: And without groan or tear, They bent before the sword, For That their King most dear: Their souls serenely blest, In patience they possess'd, And look'd in hope towards their rest.

5. What tongue may here declare, Fan-cy or thought descry, The joys

Thou dost prepare For these Thy Saints on high! Empurpled in the flood

Of their vic-to-rious blood, They won the lau-rel from their God.

6. To Thee, O Lord Most High, One in Three Per-sons still, To pardon us we cry, And to preserve from ill: Here give Thy servants peace;

Here-af-ter, glad release, And plea-sures that shall ne-ver cease. A-men.

With living stones built up on high, And rising to you starry sky;

In bridal pomp thy form is crowned, With thousand thousand angels round!

Thy Bridegroom's grace is shed on Thee, Thou Queen all fair eternally!

To Christ allied, thy Prince ador'd, Bright shining ci - ty of the Lord!

By grace and strength di-vinely shed, Each mortal thither may be led,

Who, kindled by Christ's love, will dare All earthly suff'ring now to bear!

DAY of Wrath ! O Day of mourning ! See ! once more the Cross returning,

Heav'n and earth in ashes burning ! 2. O what fear man's bosom rendeth,

When from Heav'n the Judge descendeth, On Whose sentence all dependeth !

3. Wond'rous sound the Trumpet flingeth, Through earth's sepulchres it ringeth,

All be-fore the throne it bringeth ! 4. Death is struck, and na-ture quaking,

All cre-a-tion is a-wak-ing, To its Judge an an-swer making !

Lo, the Book, exactly worded ! Wherein all hath been recorded ;

Thence shall judgement be awarded. 6. When the Judge His seat attaineth,

And each hid-den deed ar-aigneth, Nothing un-a-veng'd remaineth.

7. What shall I, frail man, be pleading? Who for me be interceding?
When the just are mercy needing. 8. King of majesty tremendous,
Who dost free sal-va-tion send us, Fount of pity! then befriend us!

9. Think! kind Je - su, my salvation Caus'd Thy wond'rous incarnation:
Leave me not to re-probation! 10. Faint and weary Thou hast sought me,
On the Cross of suff'ring bought me; Shall such grace be vainly brought me?

11. Righteous Judge of re-tri-bu-tion, Grant Thy gift of Ab-so-lu-tion, Ere that reck'ning-day's conclusion! 12. Guilty, now I pour my moaning,
All my shame with anguish owning; Spare, O God, Thy suppliant, groaning!

13. Thou, the sinful woman savest, 'A - bo', the dy-ing thief for-gav-est;
And to me a hope vouchsafest! 14. Worthless are my pray'rs and sighing,
Yet, good Lord, in grace complying, Res-cue me from fires undying!

15. With Thy fa - vour'd sheep, O place me! Nor a - mong the goats a - base me; But to Thy Right Hand up - raise me.

16. While the wicked are confounded, Doom'd to flames of woe unbounded.
Call me! with Thy saints surrounded. 17. Low I kneel, with heart-submission;
See, like ash-es, my con-tri-tion—Help me, in my last con-di-tion.
18. Ah! that Day of tears and mourning! From the dust of earth returning,
Man for judgement must prepare him :—Spare, O God, in mer-cy spare him!
Lord, Who didst our souls redeem, Grant a blessed Requiem. A - men.

The second part contains additional Hymns, for the sake of greater fulness and variety.

The Evening Hymns on Festivals are put before the Morning Hymns, because, like the Collects, they are said at the Even-song of the day before, as well as on the day itself (except when otherwise marked).

SATURDAY EVENING HYMN.

Melody of "Germine nobilis Eulalia," from a TOLEDO HYMNAL.

HEB. iv. 9.—"There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God."

WHAT their joy and their glo-ry must be,—Those endless Sabbaths the blessed ones see! Crown for the valiant: to weary ones rest:
 God shall be all, and in all e-ver blest.

2. What are the Monarch, His court, and His throne? What are the peace and the joy that they own? Tell us, ye blest ones, that in it have share, If what ye feel ye can ful - ly de - clare.

3. Tru-ly "Je-ru - sa - lem" name we that shore, "Vision of Peace" that brings joy e-ver-more! Wish and ful-fil-ment can sever'd be ne'er; Nor the thing pray'd for come short of the pray'r.

4. We, where no trouble dis-trac-tion can bring, Safe-ly the an-thems of Si - on shall sing: While for Thy grace, Lord, their voi - ces of praise Thy bless - ed peo-ple shall e-ver - more raise.

6. Now in the meanwhile, with hearts rais'd on high, We for that Country must yearn and must sigh: Seeking Je-ru-sa-len, dea-

SATURDAY EVENING HYMN.

Melody of "Deus Creator omnium,"
from the SALISBURY HYMNAL.

Heb. iv. 10.—"For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from His."

G od ended all the world's ar-ray, And rested on the Seventh Day:
 His ho-ly voice proclaim'd it blest, And nam'd it for the Sab-bath rest.

2. And He Who death by death sub-dued, And yesterday our life re-new'd,
 On Sa-tur-day His Sab-bath kept, As in the heart of earth He slept.

3. His servants, while they dwell be-low, Six days of this world's la-bour know:
 Six days to bear the Cross have they, And o'er Hell's pow'rs to force their way.

4. But when the conflict shall be o'er, And conquer'd sin can harm no more,
 The soul, releas'd from flesh-ly chain, Shall Life's e-ter-nal Sab-bath gain.

5. Then, then that Sun-day shall en-sue, Whose end no eye shall e-ver view;
 When this our flesh, from sin set free, Shall put on im-mor-ta-li-ty.

6. Then soul and bo-dy shall pos-sess, U-ni-ted, dou-ble bless-ed-ness;
 When we the ramparts shall as-cend Of that bright realm which can-not end.

7. O Father, that we ask be done Through Je-sus Christ, Thine On-ly Son;
 Who, with the Ho-ly Ghost and Thee, Shall live and reign e-ter-nal-ly. A-men.

SUNDAY MORNING HYMN.

Melody from LA FEUILLE.

Rom. vi. 4.—* * * * "We are buried with Him by baptism unto death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

CHRIST, be - ing rais'd from death of yore, As on this day, can die no more;

And that which He in bo - dy wrought By us in spi - rit must be sought.

2. This is the day that we must win A re - sur - rec - tion from all sin,

Lest by consent the soul, though free, The slave of Satan's wiles should be.

3. But whence we came, and what our state, And where we are, and why create,

And whither we must soon depart, These thoughts to-day should fill the heart.

4. From God on high to this world's frame, To darkness out of light we came,

The work of God Himself, en-dued With His own blest si - mil - i - tude.

5. Between this day and Sundays gone The soul should draw compa - rison,

And find what progress it has made, And where its pow'rs have been decay'd:

6. Each evil way should hate and flee, The path of right keep earnest - ly;

And think that each new week will yield New struggle in new battle-field:

7. And still re-joice, because we know That we have time as yet be-low,

Wherein we may advance a-pace, As well to glo-ry, as in grace.

8. Ru-ler of times, God e-ver blest, The heart's true peace and ve-ry rest!

Thy love we praise, Thy Name adore, Both on this day and evermore. Amen.

GEN. i., 16, 19.—“And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: He made the stars also. * * * And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.”

0 God, Whose Hand hath spread the sky And all its shining hosts on high,

And painting it with fie-ry light, Made it so beauteous and so bright:

2. Thou, when the Wedn'sday was begun, Didst frame the circle of the Sun,

And set the Moon for order'd change, And planets for their wider range :

3. To night and day, by certain line, Their varying bounds Thou didst assign ;

And gav'st a signal, known and meet, For months begun and months complete :

4. Enlighten Thou the hearts of men : Polluted souls make pure again :

Unloose the bands of guilt within : Remove the burden of our sin.

5. O Father, that we ask be done Through Jesus Christ, Thine Only Son ;

Who, with the Holy Ghost and Thee, Shall live and reign e-ternally A men.

St. JOHN xi., 9, 10. * * * "If any man walk in the day he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world. But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth."

B EHOld the golden dawn arise; The paling night forsakes the skies:

Those shades that hid the world from view, And us to dang'rous er-ror drew.

2. May this new day be calmly past, May we keep pure while it shall last;

Nor let our lips from truth de-part, Nor dark designs en-gage the heart.

3. So may the day speed on; the tongue No falsehood know, the hands no wrong:

Our eyes from wanton gaze refrain; No guilt our guarded bo-dies stain.

Each day our ev'-ry act He knows, From ear-ly dawn to ev'ning's close.

From the SALISBURY HYMNAL.

1 Cor. xiii., 13.—“And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.”

ETER-NAL Glo-ry of the sky, Blest hope of frail hu - ma - ni - ty,
 The Fa-ther's Sole-be-got-ten One, Yet born a spotless Virgin's Son!

2. Uplift us with Thine arm of might, And let our hearts rise pure and bright:
 And ar-dent in God's praises, pay The thanks we owe Him ev'-ry day.

 The shadows of the night depart: Thou, Ho-ly Light, il-lume 'te heart!

4. With-in our senses ever dwell, And world-ly dark-ness thence ex-pel:
 Long as the days of life endure, Preserve our souls devout and pure:

5. The Faith that first must be possess'd, Root deep within our inmost breast:
 And joy-ous Hope in second place, Then Cha-ri-ty, Thy greatest grace.

Jesu dulcis memoria.

Hymn for the EPIPHANY,
(and for Aug. 7th, De nomine Jesu).

Sequence from the
SALISBURY GRADUAL

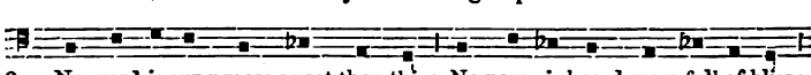

Col. iii., 17.—“Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus.”

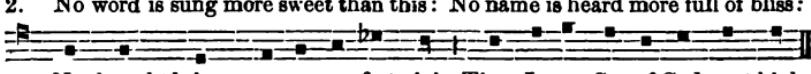

esu! The very thought is sweet! In that dear Name all heart-joys meet:

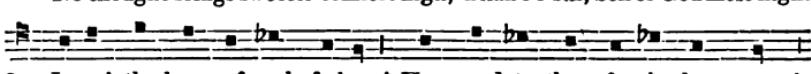

But sweet-er than the honey far The glimpses of His Presence are.

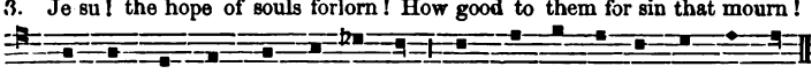

2. No word is sung more sweet than this: No name is heard more full of bliss:

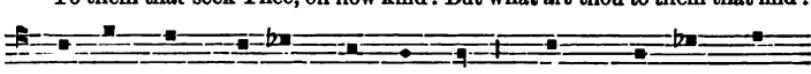

No thought brings sweeter comfort nigh, Than Je-sus, Son of God most high.

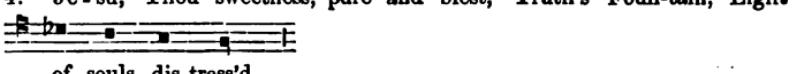

3. Je su! the hope of souls forlorn! How good to them for sin that mourn!

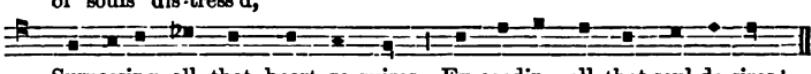

To them that seek Thee, oh how kind! But what art thou to them that find?

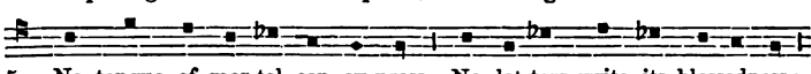

4. Je-su, Thou sweetness, pure and blest, Truth's Foun-tain, Light of souls dis-tress'd,

Surpassing all that heart re-quires, Ex-ceeding all that soul de-sires!

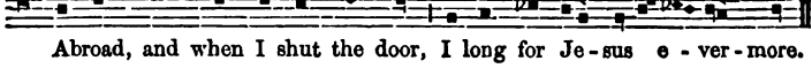

5. No tongue of mor-tal can ex-press, No let-ters write its blessedness:

A - lone who hath thee in his heart Knows, love of Jesus! what thou art.

6. I seek for Je-sus in re-pose, When round my heart its chambers close:

Abroad, and when I shut the door, I long for Je-sus e - ver - more.

7. With Ma-ry, in the morning gloom, I seek for Je-sus at the tomb.
 For Him, with Love's most earnest cry, I seek with heart, and not with eye.

8. Je-sus, to God the Fa-ther gone, Is seat-ed on the Heav'ly Throne:
 My heart hath also pass'd from me, That where He is, there it may be.

9. We follow Je-sus now, and raise The voice of pray'r, the hymn of praise,
 That He at last may make us meet With Him to gain the Heav'ly Seat.

¶ Amor quam extaticus.

Hymn for Sundays after EPIPHANY.

Third melody of "Exultat cælum laudibus."
From the SALISBURY HYMNAL.

EPH. iii., 19.—* * * * "The love of Christ, which passeth knowledge."

O Love, how deep, how broad, how high, How passing thought can - ta - sy,
 That God, the Son of God, should take Our mortal form for mortals' sake!

2. He sent no An-gel to our race, Of high - er or of low - er place,
 But wore the robe of hu-man frame, And He Himsclf to this world came.

3. Nor will'd He on - ly to ap - pear; His pleasure was to tar - ry here;
And God and Man with man would be The space of thir - ty years and three.

4. For us bap - tis'd, for us He bore His ho - ly fast, and hun - ger'd sore,
For us temptations sharp He knew, For us the Tempt - er o - verthrew.

5. For us He preaches and He prays, Would do all things, would try all ways;
By words, and signs, and ac - tions, thus Still seeking not Himself, but us.

6. For us to wick-ed men be - tray'd, Scourg'd, mock'd, in Crown of Thorns ar - ray'd;
For us He bore the Cross's death, For us at length gave up His breath.

7. For us He rose from death a - gain, For us He went on high to reign,

JOEL ii., 12.—“Therefore also now, saith the Lord, turn ye even unto me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.”

The fast, as taught by ho-ly lore, We keep in solemn course once more:
 The fast to all men known, and bound In for - ty days of year - ly round.

2. The law and seers that were of old In di - vers ways this Lent foretold,
 Which Christ, all sea-sons' king and guide, In af-ter a-ges sanc-ti-fied.

3. More sparing therefore let us make The words we speak, the food we take,
 Our sleep and mirth,—and clos-er barr'd Be ev'-ry sense in ho-ly guard.

4. In pray'r to-ge-ther let us fall, And cry for mer-cy, one and all,
 And weep be-fore the Judge's feet, And His a - venging wrath en-treat.

5. Thy grace have we offended sore By sins, O God, which we de-plore,
 But pour up - on us from on high, O pard'ning One, Thy clemen-cy!

6. Remember Thou, though frail we be, That yet thine handiwork are we ;
 Nor let the ho-nour of Thy Name Be by an-o-ther put to shame.

7. Forgive the sin that we have wrought: Increase the good that we have sought;
 That we at length, our wand'rings o'er, May please Thee here and evermore.

 That this our fast of forty days May work our profit and Thy praise. A-men.

EVENING HYMN
for the FESTIVALS OF MARTYRS.Proper Melody from GUIDETTI and PALESTRINA.

1 S. PET. iii., 14.—“If ye suffer for righteousness sake, happy are ye.”

T h' eternal gifts of Christ the King, The Martyrs' glorious deeds, we sing:

And while due hymns of praise we pay, Our thankful hearts cast grief away.

2. The terrors of the world despis'd, The bo-dy's torments lightly priz'd,

By one brief space of death and pain Life e-verlasting they obtain.

3. To flames the Martyr Saints are hal'd: By teeth of savage beasts assail'd:

Against them, arm'd with ruthless brand And hooks of steel, the torturers stand.

4. The mangled frame is tor-tur'd sore: The holy life-drops freshly pour:

They stand unmov'd amidst the strife, By grace of e-ver - last - ing life.

5. Redeemer, hear us of Thy love, That, with the Mar-tyr Host above, Hereafter, of Thine endless grace, Thyservants also may have place. Amen.

MORNING HYMN
for the FESTIVALS OF MARTYRS.From an ANTIPOHARY in the Public Library, Cambridge.

PSALM xvi., 3.—All my delight is upon the Saints, that are in the earth: and upon such as excel in virtue."

BLESSED Feasts of Blessed Mar-tys! Saintly days of saint-ly men!

With af-fec-tion's re-col-lec-tions Greet we your re-turn a-gain.

2. Mighty deeds they wrought, and wonders, While a frame of flesh they bore:

We with meetest praise, and sweetest, Ho-nour them for e-vermore.

3. Faith unblenching, Hope unquenching, Well-lov'd Lord, and single heart,

Thus they glorious and vic-tori-ous, Bore the Martyr's hap-py part.

4. Blood in slaughter pour'd like wa-ter, Torments long and heavy chain, Flame, and axe, and la-ce-ra-tion, They en-dur'd, and conquer'd pain.

5. While they pass'd through di-vers tortures, Till they sank by death oppress'd, Earth's re-ject-ed were e-lect-ed, To have portion with the Blest.

6. By contempt of world-ly pleasures, And by mighty battles done,
 They have reach'd the Land of Angels, And with them are knit in one.

7. They are made co-heirs of glo-ry, And they sit with Christ on high:
 Oh that, as He heard their weeping, He might al-so hear our cry.

8. Till, this wea-ry life com-plat-ed, And its ma-ny la-bours past,
 He shall grant us to be seat-ed In our Fa-ther's Home at last!

 Whese doctrine, like the thunder, sounds To the wide world's re-motest bounds.

ISAIAH xl., 9.—“O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!”

FULL of gladness Let our faithful Choir be singing Al-le-lu-ia.

Monarchs' Monarch From unspotted Maiden springing, Al-le-lu-ia.

2. Him the Ho-ly Vir-gin bore, Wonderful and Counsel-lor, Sun from star had spring: Sun, that never knoweth night; Star, for e-ver shin-ing. bright, E-ver glitt'ring. 3. As a star a ray most fair, Thus the Vir-gin al-so bare, Like in form, the Child; Nor the star by that its ray, Nor the Vir-gin a-ny way By the Birth de-fil'd.
4. Now con-forms the Ce-dar tall To the hys-sop of the wall In our vale of tears: He, God's Word and Essence, came To as-sume our mor-tal frame, And with man ap-pears. 5. Though I-saiah had fore-shewn, Though the Syna-gogue had known, Yet the truth she will not own, Still re-main-ing blind: If she do her prophets wrong,
If she will not hear their throng, Still she may, in Gen-tile song,
Seek the deed, and find. 6. Turn, Judea, and re-pent: Cre-dit thine
Old Tes-ta-ment: Why up-on destruction bent, Mi-ser-a-ble race?
Whom its or-a-cles fore-told Born to save the world be-hold; Him a Vir-gin's arms en-fold, Full of truth and grace, Full of truth and grace.

8. LUKE i., 26, 27.—“And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, To a Virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the Virgin's name was Mary.”

T o the Vir-gin He sends No in-ferior An-gel; But Ga-briel He

2. And mighty must needs be The Mes-sen-ger sent, By whom shall

3. The King's Na-tal glo-ry Shall Na-ture o'er-sway; Let Him reign, let Him con-quer, By pur-ging a-way The dross of corrup-tion.

4. Let Him cast ev'-ry haughty one Down from his seat, In His might on the mighty ones Set-ting his feet,— The Vic-tor in bat-tle.

5. Let Him cast out the Monarch Whom this world o-beys: To the Throne of the Father His Bride let Him raise, To be sharer with Him.

6. Go forth on thy message, These gifts to un-fold; From the let-ter of Scripture The veil shall be roll'd, By the might of thy word.

7. Draw nigh,—speak the tidings,— Say Hail! to her now; And say,
Highly favour'd, And say, Fear not thou, And, The Lord is with thee.

8. Re-ceive then, O Vir-gin, The gift God or-dains, While yet the firm purpose Un-al-ter'd remains Of thy chasteat re-solve.

5. He shall of-fer this Body Our ran-som to be; His Blood He shall pour forth His ser-vants to free, And pour ev'-ry life-drop.

6. From my coun-try an ex-ile I wan-der'd in vain, And knew not the path-way By which to re-gain True joy e- ver -last -ing.

7. To the place of my ex-ile God deigns to descend! My way He be-cometh Him-self, and my end: I shall walk here in safety.

S. JOHN BAPTIST.

Sixth melody of "Jam lucis."
From the SALISBURY HYMNAL.

ISAIAH xlix., 1.—"Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name."

THE great forerunner of the Morn, The Herald of the Word, is born;
And faithful hearts shall never fail With thanks and praise his light to hail.

2. With heav'nly mes-sage Ga-briel came, That John should be that her-ald's name; And with pro-phe-tic utr'rance told His ac-tions great and man-i-fold.

3. John, still unborn, yet gave a-right His witness to the com-ing Light;
And Christ fulfil'd it, at His Birth, Right gloriously o'er all the earth.

4. Of wo-men born shall ne-ver be A great-er Pro-phet than was he:
Whose mighty deeds ex-alt his fame To greater than a Prophet's name.

5. But why should mortal accents raise The hymn of John the Baptist's praise?
Of whom, or ere his course was run, Thus spake the Father to the Son:

6. Behold My her-ald, who shall go Be-fore Thy Face, Thy way to show:
Shall shine, as with the Day-Star's gleam, Before Thine own e-ternal beam.

7. All laud to God the Fa-ther be: All laud, E-ter-nal Son, to Thee:
All laud, as is for e-ver meet, To God the Ho-ly Paraclete. Amen.

O Nata Lux de Lumine.

HYMN for the TRANSFIGURATION.

From the SALISBURY HYMNAL.

PHIL. iii. 21.—“Who shall change our vile body that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body.”

A TYPE of those bright rays on high For which the Church hopes long-ing-ly, Christ on the ho-ly mountain shows Where brighter than the Sun He glows:

2. Tale for all a - ges to declare: For with the three dis-ci-ples there,
 Where Moses and E - li - as meet, The Lord holds converse, high and sweet.

3. The chos-en wit - ness - es stand nigh, Of Grace, The Law, and Prophecy:
 And from the cloud the Ho-ly One Bears re - cord to the On - ly Son.

4. With face more bright than noon-tide ray, Christ deigns to man-i-fest to-day
 What Glo-ry shall be theirs a - bove, Who joy in God with per-fect love.

5. And faith-ful hearts are rais'd on high By this great vision's mys-te-ry;
 For which, in year-ly course, we raise The voice of pray'r and hymn of praise.

6. Thou, Fa - ther,—Thou, E - ter - nal Son, Thou, Ho-ly Spi - rit, Three in One, To this same Glo-ry bring us nigh, That we may see Thee eye to eye. A - men.

EVENING HYMN for
ALL SAINTS, or for any particular SAINT.Melody from a MS. Psalmista secundum ordinem Fratrum Prædicatorum.

Rom. x., 10, 11.—“With the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on Him shall not be ashamed.”

THE Church on earth, with an - sw'ring love, E - choes her Mo - ther's joys a - bove: These yearly feast-days she may keep, And yet for end - less fes - tals weep. 2. In this world's val - ley, dim and wild,
 That Mo - ther must as - sist the child; And heav'n - ly guards must pitch their tents, And range their ranks, in our de - fence.
 3. The world, the flesh, and Sa - tan's rage, Their dif'ring wars a - gainst us wage; And when their phan - tom - hosts come on, The Sab - bath of the heart is gone: 4. And storms confus'd a - bove us low'r
 Of hope and fear, and joy and woe; And scarce - ly ev'n for one half - hour Is si - lence in God's house be - low. 5. That distant City, oh how blest, Whose feast - days know nor pause nor rest!
 How gladsome is that Palace gate, Round which nor fear nor sor - row wait.

6. Nor languor here, nor wea - ry age, Nor fraud, nor dread of hostile rage;
 But one the joy, and one the song, And one the heart of all the throng.

7. In that serene and glo-rious place When this life's ma - ny toils are past, Christ, of His E-verlasting Grace, Grant us to join the Blest at last !

8. The Saints whose praise to-day we sing Are standing now before the Throne, Saint Is
 And face to face behold the King In all His Ma-jes - ty made known. Amen.

REV. vii., 14.—“These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.”

0 UR fes - tal strains to-day re - veal The joys that faithful spi - rit - s feel,
 As of - ten as the in - most heart In these true Sab - baths bears a part.

2. The pure of soul a - lone have grace The future joys of Heav'n to trace,
 And learn in foretaste sweet and rare What glories deck the Blessed there.

3. What bliss, in that celestial land, They know, the bright An - ge - lic band :
 Who see the King That crowns the fight, In all His Ma - jes - ty of light.

4. Blest is that Country, e-ver blest, Which knoweth nought save joy and rest!
 Whose cit-i-zens for e-ver raise The long un-broken chant of praise!

5. Whom sweet-ness, more than earth-ly, fills; Who know no grief, and mourn no ills; Whom ne-ver more can foe a-larm, Nor storm approach to work them harm. 6. Let this our meditation be A-long the vale of mi-se-ry; This oc-cu-py each sleeping hour, And ex-er-cise each wak-ing pow'r. 7. Thus shall we gain, this ex-ile past,
 Our Country's Blessed Crown at last; Thus in His Glo-ry shall a-dore
 The King of A-ges e-vermore. A-men.

Rev. vii., 2, 3.—“I saw another Angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.”

THE prais-es that the Blessed know The Church shall im-i-tate be-low, Whene'er she greets, in year-ly strain, The birthdays of her Saints a-gain.

(200)

2. Now, all their bat-tles past and gone, The Crown of Glo-ry is set on;

For Chas-ti-ty, as li-ly white, For Martyrdom, as ru-by bright.

3. This can-not hu-man fan-cy know, Nor tongue of Men nor An-gels shew, Till endless life the vict'ry brings That gives for earthly, heav'nly things.

4. One day of those most glorious rays Is bet-ter than ten thousand days!

Rerfulgent with ce-les-tial light, And with God's fullest knowledge bright.

5. That we the Saints' blest lives may reach, That we their blessed faith may teach,

May join a-bove, and love below, The Spi-rit of All Grace bestow. Amen.

2 TIM. ii. 12.—"If we suffer, we shall also reign with him."

If there be that skills to reckon All the num-ber of the Blest,

He, perchance, can weigh the glad-ness Of the everlasting rest W hich, their earth-ly warfare finish'd, They through suff'ring have possest.

2. Through the vale of la-men-ta-tion Hap-pi-ly and safe-ly past,

Now the years of their af-flic-tion In their mem'ry they re-cast,

And the end of all per-fec-tion They can con-tem-plate at last.

3. For they see their cruel Tempter Suff'ring tor-ments e-ver-more;

To the Saviour That redeem'd them Those redeem'd ones praises pour,

And the Monarch That rewards them Those rewarded saints a-dore.

4. In a glass, through types and riddles, Dwelling here, we see a-lone;

Then se-rene-ly, pure-ly, clear-ly, We shall know as we are known;

Fix-ing our en-light-en'd vi-sion On the glo-ry of the Throne.

5. There the Trin-i-ty of Per-sons Un-be-cloud-ed shall we see!

There the U-ni-ty of Es-sence Shall re-veal'd in glo-ry be:

While we hail the Three-fold Godhead And the sim-ple U-ni-ty.

6. Wherefore, man, take heart and courage Whatsoe'er thy present pain;

Such untold reward through suff'ring Thou may'st me-rit to at-tain;

And for e-ver in His Glo-ry With the Light of Light to reign.

ISAIAH lxiv., 4.—"Since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him."

LIGHT's abode, Celestial Salem, Vision dear, whence peace hath spring
 Brighter than the heart can fan - cy, Mansion of the Highest King;
 O how glorious are the prais-es Which of thee the pro-phets sing!

 2. Thou with beauteous stones and polish'd Wondrously art rear'd on high;
 Thou with pre-cious gems and crys-tal De - co - ra - ted glorious-ly:
 And with pearls thy portals glitter, And with gold thy streets may vie.

 3. There for e - ver and for e - ver Al - le - lu - ia is out - pour'd:
 For un - end - ing, for un - bro - ken, Is the feast - day of the Lord;
 All is pure, and all is ho - ly That with - in thy walls is stor'd.

4. There no cloud or pass-ing va-pour Dims the brightness of the air;

Endless noon-day, glorious noon-day From the Sun of suns is there;

There no night brings rest from labour, There unknown are toil and care.

5. O how glorious and re-splen-dent, Fra-gile bo-dy, shalt thou be,

When endued with so much beau-ty, Full of health, and strong, and free,

Full of vi-gour, full of plea-sure That shall last e-ter-nal-ly!

6. Now with gladness, now with courage, Bear the burden on thee laid,

That here-af-ter these thy la-bours May with endless gifts be paid:

And in e-ver-last-ing glo-ry Thou with joy may'st be ar-ray'd.

BLESSED Ci - ty, Heav'n - ly Sa - lem, Land of glo - ry, land of rest;

Joy - ous e - ver and tri - um - phant In the ar - mies of the blest;

Where the King, thy grace re-new-ing, Doth His Glo-ry ma - ni - fest:

2. Now and henceforth this thy tem-ple Shall a ho-lier mem'ry own,

By the right of res - to - ra - tion From the old foun-da-tion stone,

Than the for-mer house, here builded, Had in o - ther a - ges known.

3. Come Thou now, and be among us, Lord and Maker, while we pray:

Let Thy pre-sence fill the Tem - ple Which we de - di - cate to - day;

And, Thy-self its Con-se-cre-tor, Dwell with-in its walls al-way!

4. Grant that all Thy faith-ful peo-ple May thy tru-er Tem-ple be;

Neither flesh, nor soul, nor spi-rit Know an-o-ther Lord than Thee:

But to Thee once de-di-ca-ted, Serve Thee e-ver-last-ing-ly.

5. Bright be here the Monarch's Al-tar With the presents that we bring:

Held in ho-ly ve-ne-ra-tion, Rich with ma-ny an of-fer-ing;

E-ver hal-low'd, e-ver qui-et, E-ver dear to God its King!

6. Here our souls as Thy true Al-tars Deign to hal-low and to bless,

O thou fu-ture Judge of all men, With Thy grace and ho-li-ness;

That Thy gifts, sent down from Heaven, We may e-ver-more possess.

7. Laud and ho-nour to the FATHER; Laud and ho-nour to the Son;

Laud and ho-nour to the SPI-rit; E-ver Three and e-ver One;

The first set of Canticles has also been prepared for use in the Channel Islands, under the title

Cantiques de l'Église Anglaise,

Avec la notation adaptée de l'Anglais du Rev. THOMAS HELMORE, M.A.

Also in preparation, by the same Author, and shortly to be published,

The Plain-Song Harmonist,

Consisting of Translations from the French of MM. Danjou, Janssen, and Nisard in the Dictionary of Plain Song, forming the 29th volume of Migne's Encyclopédie Théologique, with original Notes by the Editor, forming a Guide to the English Organist for the correct accompaniment of Gregorian Music, very much needed at the present time.
